SHARE TRANSFER RESTRICTION

Article 9

1. Unless all shareholders concerned give their written approval, shares may only be transferred with due observance of the following provisions:
2. If a shareholder wishes to alienate one (1) or more of his shares to others than the corporation, he shall first offer them to his fellow-shareholders and he shall so notify the board of managing directors by registered letter, stating exactly the serial numbers of the shares, the price at which he wishes to sell the shares and the person or persons to whom he wishes to transfer the shares.
3. Within fourteen (14) days after receipt of the registered letter the board of managing directors shall notify the other shareholders of its contents.
4. Within one (1) month following such notice each shareholder may inform the board of managing directors that he desires to purchase one (1) or more of the shares offered at the price asked therefor or that he wishes the value of the shares to be estimated by experts.
5. In the first case, if no appraisal has been requested by any shareholder and unless the offering shareholder then withdraws his offer within one (1) month after he was informed of the number of shares allotted to each prospective buyer and the corresponding price with respect to all the shares offered, the offerer shall be under an obligation to transfer the shares to the ----- shareholders who wish to buy his shares, against cash --- payment or the price asked, provided all the shares ----- offered are purchased. -----

6. When appraisal is desired by one (1) or more ----- shareholders they shall appoint three experts in mutual - agreement with the offerer, each of the parties ----- appointing one (1) expert, the third being appointed by - the other two (2) jointly. -----

7. Within one (1) month after the shareholders have been notified of the value thus appraised, each of them may -- inform the board of managing directors of his intention - to purchase one (1) or more of the shares offered, at the appraised value or at the price originally asked, in ---- which case the offerer, unless the appraised value is -- lower than the price originally asked and/or the offering shareholder withdraws his offer within one (1) month ---- after he was informed of the number of shares allotted to each prospective buyer and the corresponding price with - respect to all the shares offered, is under an obligation to sell such shares to the shareholders concerned, ----- against cash payment and at the value or price selected - by the lastmentioned shareholders, provided all the ----- shares offered are purchased. -----

8. If several shareholders state that they are interested in purchasing as stipulated hereinbefore, the shares ---- shall be allotted by the board of managing directors in - proportion to each shareholders' holdings whenever ----- possible. If and to the extent such allotment cannot be - made on that basis, it shall be determined by lot. -----

9. If the shareholders have failed to exercise their ---- right to purchase within the period of time provided, to the extent that all of the shares offered are purchased - either with or without appraisal, the offerer shall be -- free during a six (6) months' period to sell his shares - whenever possible. -----

However, if the shareholders fail to exercise their right to purchase to the extent that all the shares offered are purchased, the offerer shall be entitled to keep the shares, unless the corporation should decide to buy the shares itself, with or without appraisal. The offerer is not entitled to abandon the transfer if the appraised value is lower than the price at which the shares are offered.

An obligation to offer as contemplated by this paragraph shall also exist in case of bankruptcy of a shareholder or if he files a petition for an official moratorium, if his shares are attached or if he otherwise loses control of his property.

11. If a shareholder, who pursuant to the preceding paragraph of this article is obligated to offer his shares, has not within one (1) month after the lapse of the aforementioned term of six (6) months offered his shares for transfer in the way described herein before, the corporation or a co-shareholder shall be authorized to make an unconditional, irrevocable offer in writing to the said person to acquire the shares concerned for payment in cash of the value of the shares concerned.
